

ABOUT

Witness operatic history as NYCO presents the work that launched the New York City Opera inaugural season in 1944, Giacomo Puccini's Tosca. To mark this triumphant occasion, NYCO has obtained from Casa Ricordi the exclusive North American rights to re-create Adolf Hohenstein's set and costume designs made for the original production of Tosca, premiered at Rome in 1900. Here, for the first time in the United States, a masterpiece of Belle Époque design can be seen with the timeless music drama that inspired it.
